Terry Pratchett Discworld series

It is very imaginative, but also entertaining and sometimes laugh-out-loud funny. The first book introduces us to an inept wizard called Rincewind (he never knew his mother as she ran away before he was born.....), who is always trying to run away from danger, but keeps accidentally saving the world. There are also many other groups of characters, which are explored in over 30 novels, so there is plenty to keep you busy reading. My favourite characters are the the Silver Horde, in the book "Interesting Times", who are very elderly and disabled warrior heroes, but love a good fight and can beat the socks off any enemy!
