

Curriculum Map 2024

Key Stage 3

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
7	Introduction to the UK	Physical Landscapes of the UK	Weather & Climate of the UK	People of the UK	Work, Rest and Play in the UK	Challenges & Opportunities in UK ◆ Felixstowe Trip
	Secure age related expectations (ARE) for end of unit:
	By the end of this unit students at ARE will be able to: identify the characteristics of the UK and its near neighbours. Students will have skills to be able to read and interpret an OS map.	By the end of this unit students at ARE will be able to: describe the main physical landscapes of the UK including mountainous and glacial areas. Students will also be able to explain the processes associated with rivers and coasts.	By the end of this unit students at ARE will be able to: identify the difference in weather (inc extreme) and climate (inc micro) and explain the process of rainfall. Students will be able to read and interpret a weather map using standard symbols.	By the end of this unit students at ARE will be able to: describe the UK population and how it has changed. Students will be able to define migration and explain the impact this has on shaping the identity of the UK. Students will be able to read and interpret population pyramids.	By the end of this unit students at ARE will be able to: identify the nature of work in the UK including classification of industry type with examples. Students will be able to identify recreation and sport as activities in the UK. Student will be able to complete a decision making activity.	By the end of this unit students at ARE will be able to: identify the main challenges in the UK and how these present opportunities. Student will know what GIS is and how it can be used in Geography.
8	The Physical World	Our Living World	Our Unequal World	Africa ◆ Colchester Zoo Trip	World Cities	Global Issues 1
	Secure age related expectations (ARE) for end of unit:
	By the end of this unit students at ARE will be able to: identify the global pattern of volcanoes and earthquakes and some of the landforms they create. Students will be able to use different thematic maps to make comparisons.	By the end of this unit students at ARE will be able to: describe the features of an ecosystem and apply this to a mediterranean and coral reef ecosystem. Students will be able to interpret satellite photographs.	By the end of this unit students at ARE will be able to: define development and how this causes migration. Students will understand inequalities in health and food and the impact of trade. Students will be able to construct scattergraphs and recognise proportionality.	By the end of this unit students at ARE will be able to: identify location of countries in Africa and describe their populations. Students will know about the Sahara desert and Nigeria and be able to draw a cross section.	By the end of this unit students at ARE will be able to: define urbanisation and the rural-urban movement of people in China especially to megacities along with the emergence of sustainable cities. Students will understand the issues for housing the poor in India and be able to interpret a choropleth map.	By the end of this unit students at ARE will be able to: recognise some of the major global challenges of C21 such as plastic in the oceans, climate change, tourism & wilderness areas. Students will know that conflict is a geographical issue and be able to use maps and satellite images.
9	Volcanology	Fast Fashion / Crime tbc	Hot & cold Env (deserts & glaciers) ◆ Power Within London Trip	Tourism (inc Jamaica)	Intro to GCSE: P1.2 The Living World	Intro to GCSE P1.1b Climate Change
	Secure age related expectations (ARE) for end of unit:				GCSE Grading
	tbc Curriculum launching September 2024				Students will be graded according to GCSE criteria using exam covering reduced content.

Key Stage 4

10	P1.1a Natural Hazards (Tectonic & Weather)	P2.1b Urban Issues (UK)	P2.2 Resource Management	P2.1a Urban Issues (Rio)	P1.3 Coasts & Rivers	◆ Fieldwork Revision & PPE1
11	Work Experience ◆ Fieldwork	P2.3 Changing Economic World Revision & PPE2 Revision		PPE3 + Pre Release Booklet	Revision & exam practice	Final Exams 🏆
Students will be graded according to GCSE criteria using exam covering reduced content.						